

Questions From Caregivers

We know experienced caregivers genuinely want to help. These caregivers are still looking for your answers and advice. Can you help?

Q: Who should be responsible for the care of an aging mother? Her siblings or her children?

Mother has 3 children who for whatever reason seem to be reluctant to help in the care of their mother.

Q: Caregiver needs a good nights rest! Any suggestions?

Loved one has Parkinson's and dementia. He is up several times at night going to the bathroom or doing whatever. He refuses to let any help in the house with him at night except me.

Q: Short term memory loss or just recovering?

My husband thinks Mom just needs time to recover from an 8 week stay in rehab, but I'm concerned this is the beginning of dementia.
